HYBRID LEARNING SPACES

Hybrid learning promotes a flexible approach to learning that places in-person instruction side-by-side with remote learning.

Hybrid learning has the potential to create enhanced classrooms that improve global access to education and improve the learning experience in general.

Crunchy Tech can design, install, and provide world class support for any education AV system to help make your campus remote-learning ready.

CLEAR AUDIO FOR ALL STUDENTS

From teaching students to training employees, the effective facilitation of hybrid learning requires custom AV solutions. As audio-visual integrators, designers, and installers, we are constantly enhancing educational technologies to support effective learning.

Audio is an especially important aspect for all classrooms of all sizes. Our AV systems can have microphone arrays in the ceiling, and clear audio for any position in the room for all students whether they are in the classroom or learning remotely.

DIGITAL DISPLAYS FOR AMAZING VISUALS

Visuals are key to creating a comprehensive educational environment in today's classrooms and having proper distributed video systems are key to the learning experience.

Proper visuals can make or break a student's attentiveness and are also important for sharing information campus-wide and in an easy fashion that does not require a lot of technological prowess.

Crunchy Tech will design, install, and support world class and easy to use video systems.

OUTDOOR DIGITAL SIGNAGE

Sometimes outdoor digital signage can become very outdated, and a large video wall is a great addition to provide essential information for students and guests. Crunchy Tech can upgrade very outdated dot-paneled video wall and provide an upgrade that can be utilized without needing a major update in a few years. Clients choose Crunchy Tech since we can custom engineer and design anything needed to engage students with better on-campus digital signage.
